Dear Trinity Women,

I am inviting you to a BRIEF meeting (no more than 15 minutes) following worship on Sunday, September 8th, to accomplish two tasks:

1. Choose a date in early November for a Women's Retreat at the church- Friday evening and part of Saturday.
2. Choose a theme for the retreat.

Come with your ideas. You can think of a topic, a scripture verse, a song, etc. Lucy Brady, 1lucybrady@gmail.com or Text: 419-746-6189

Pastor Gerry's Column

"I am not going to let the worst thing you have done to me define our relationship." If you came to worship during the past five Sundays, you would have heard me repeat this quote from Linda Biell, from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa some 20 years ago. Possibly more relevant to us in these days than ever before, this was one of the strong ideas "mantras" I offered during the worship/sermon series titled, "The Ministry of Forgiveness and Reconciliation."

As I write this column for the September issue of the Trinity UCC newsletter, I realize that I am not finished with exploring (or preaching and teaching about the power of forgiveness that leads to righting broken relationships) the practice of forgiveness.

If you did not attend any of these worship services or just one or two, then let me share some of what I said right in front of you in black and white – in writing. I shared four profound ideas to consider as we explore the power and importance of forgiveness:

- Without Forgiveness we remain tethered/hooked to the person who harmed us or the one we harmed...but connected in an unhealthy way; when we forgive we take back control of our own fate and our own feelings.
- Lewis B. Smedes offers us another strong idea: "Forgiving does not erase the bitter past. A healed memory is not a deleted memory. Instead, forgiving what we cannot forget creates a new way to remember. We change the memory of our past into a hope for our future."
- Holding on to a resentment of another is like your taking poison and hoping the other person dies.

- Hating or resenting another person keeps that person "living rent free in your head;" what we need to do is to get them out of your head and out in the open so we can talk to the other person about our feelings...in truth with love.

These are powerful ideas to think about as we continue seeking better and more loving relationships in our families, in the work place, on the playing field or at church.

In closing, let me offer this final profound shared by Lewis B. Smedes in answer to the question: "How will you know when you have really forgiven another person?" Smedes says, "You will know that you have forgiven another person or you will know that forgiveness has begun when you recall those who hurt you and feel the power to wish them well." When you find yourself thinking positive and hopeful thoughts about that person. When you can encourage them...to be happy, to have a good day even.

Ponder these thoughts in your heart in these days. Open yourself anew to the power of forgiveness.

In Faith, Pastor Hanberry

Lexi Notes

September marks the end of Trinity's "doldrum days." Attendance will pick back up a little bit, and before you know it everyone will be a little bit busier, myself included. Sunday School and choir will be back in session, everyone will be balancing a few more obligations between work, school, and volunteering.

On September 8, we will kick off the fall with Rally Day, a morning full of food and festivities. This is also when we begin our new series on "half-truths." I have tried to pick choir music that elaborates on, or elucidates, each "half-truth" without simply taking a contrary position, or merely celebrating the "half-message." I am looking forward to our ministry together.

HOW SWEET THE SOUND™

Resumes September 5

This fall, our choir resumes practicing on Thursday, September 5, at 7:30pm. We will sing our first anthem on Rally Day Sunday,

September 8. I am looking forward to another season of astonishing accomplishments from our dedicated choir members! – Lexi

Annual Blessing of the Backpacks will be held during worship September 8 (10:45 a.m.). Anyone from the congregation, who is attending preschool through college, is invited to bring their backpack to worship. In the service we will invite all to come forward – INCLUDING ANY TEACHERS OR OTHER SCHOOL STAFF – for a blessing. This is a great time to encourage and support, through our prayers and thoughts, those who are part of the educational/learning programs of the area.

Food Bags for Backpacks Project

Trinity UCC is preparing to start our sixth year of donating “Food bags for Backpacks” to Manchester Elementary School.

September donations are due at the church by Sunday, September 15. Items may be placed in the box in the Sunday School Room. You may also write a check to Trinity UCC and note Food Bags for Backpack Project in the memo line.

Trinity UCC's blood drive held on Wednesday August 21.

Great blood drive! Thank you for teaming with the American Red Cross and hosting blood drives at your location. You have been doing an excellent job of promoting and recruiting for your blood drives. Let's keep growing the drives and providing a regular and convenient place for your donors to donate. Thank you so much for all your hard work in planning, organizing and recruiting for the blood drive.

I wanted to share with you the results:
Presenting Donors: 25 Total Units: 19

On behalf of the patients in our community, please extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who donated. For each unit of blood collected, 3 lives can potentially be saved. Through the support of your donors today, 66 lives could have been saved. Through all of your efforts, your group has potentially helped save 66 lives in this Fiscal Year. That is EXCELLENT!!!

HALF-TRUTHS: BEYOND CLICHÉ THEOLOGY Worship/SermonSeries

September 8, 15, 22, 29

10:45 am

These half-truths are things we say and hear all the time. They sound good at the time and even have a hint of the truth within them, but when we stop to think about what it is we are really saying, we find that the effect may actually hurt others rather than help them. Basing your life on such half-truths can be worrisome if not dangerous. This series explore these often-said phrases and the wisdom that we DO find in the Bible in our search for “whole truths” beyond cliché theology. For additional inspiration you might find a book by: Adam Hamilton’s (Half-Truths: God Helps Those Who Help Themselves and Other Things the Bible Doesn’t Say.) interesting and helpful.

ROAR... God is good!!!!

We had 20 children participating in Trinity's VBS program this year. Our week was filled with adventure as children lived the story of captive Israelis in Egypt and their journey. We learned of their unfair treatment as slaves making bricks. Pharaoh, aka Elwin Wagner, visited as scary plagues finally convinced Pharaoh to set the people free. Life changed as the children fled across the Red Sea into the wilderness where they learned to depend on God for life sustaining water, manna and quail. Students heard the sadness in the story of resurrection and then crossing the Jordan River into the Promised Land built a monument with river rocks reminding us of God's goodness.

Throughout the week we emphasized watching for God, looking for the goodness from God in the world around us. One evening, Pastor Sam Chamelin engaged our students in thinking about all the good food God has provided and helped them plant some seeds. We had Donn Dietrich visit us from NESAP sharing with us how this local organization makes a difference in our community. Donn reported an increase in young families with children and the elderly seeking assistance. VBS collected 176 food, cleaning, and toiletry items and we received $189.31 in offering on Friday evening to support NESAP programs. Our sanctuary added more decorations each day during the week and by Friday evening it was filled with reminders of the lessons covered and the NESAP donations. Our Friday evening program included all of our attendees. They shared seven songs that they had learned during the week and many stayed for fellowship afterwards.

A huge thank you to over 30 people from this congregation who supported VBS this year. We received money donations to help with the cost of supplies. We had volunteers who did a lot of planning and volunteers who came during the week to help us out for one night or all the nights. Our supporters were, Donna Alban, MB

Brainerd, Ed Burgoon, Eva Gebhardt, Pastor Gerry Hanberry, Karen Haines, Alice Hann, Belva LaMotte, Ron and Jessica Larson, Pam Marchand, Leon and Judy Miller, Robert Miller, Leroy and Barbara Myers, Doug and Sue Myers, Jackie and Logan Nave, Donna Powell, Karen Price, Doug and Charlene Rhoten, Sandy and Wayne Sanders, Rob and Nicki Saunders, Lexi Starr, Elwin Wagner, Michelle Wolfgang-Fantone, Candice Welsh, Ron and Shirley Zumbrun. It is amazing that as small as our congregation is that we had so many people helping out this year, God is good!!!

Frederick Keys Baseball Game

On Friday, August 16th, 47 members of Trinity UCC, Immanuel Lutheran, and St. Mark's UCC attended a Frederick Keys baseball game. The weather, food, and fireworks were great, but unfortunately the Keys lost the game. Even so everyone had a very enjoyable evening.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

Offered by
Trinity United Church of Christ
Manchester, MD

²⁻⁴ “Consider it a sheer gift, friends, when tests and challenges come at you from all sides. You know that under pressure, your faith-life is forced into the open and shows its true colors. So don’t try to get out of anything prematurely. Let it do its work so you become mature and well-developed, not deficient in any way” (James 1:2-4 – “The Message”).

Nine Wednesdays (September – November, 2019)

September 11, 18, & 25; October 9, 16, 23 & 30;
& November 13 & 20, 2019

6:45 – 8:00 p.m. at Trinity UCC

“The Faith That Works is a Faith That Works”

The New Testament book of James is often titled “The Faith That Works.” In this little book of five chapters, James writes a letter to the emerging Christian churches in Jerusalem and possibly to a more expansive group of churches in the region of Judah.

The title of this Bible Study suggests a current trend in the modern-day Christian church about “putting our faith into action.” James’ letter to the churches in Jerusalem in ancient times is a letter to us in the 21st Century as well. James asks us this profound question in chapter 2, verse 14: “What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works?” Or as Eugene Peterson in “The Message” puts it: “Dear friends, do you think you’ll get anywhere in this if you learn all the right words but never do anything?”

Starting Wednesday, September 11, this Bible Study will not only help refine our understanding of the ‘right words,’ but will invite us and challenge us to live out those ‘words’ in our daily lives. We will explore how the “power of the text shapes and forms our lives” and come to understand how scripture “makes demands on our lives.”

The ONLY HOMEWORK will be to read the assigned scripture reference before the session each Wednesday evening. Using a variety of media and related resources, small group discussion and individual reflection, Pastor Hanberry will lead us in an interactive, inspiring and informative (and forming) experience of Bible study and spiritual growth. Please join us for an enriching and helpful time of study and reflection. For more information contact Pastor Gerry at 301-788-6546 or pastortucc@comcast.net.

UCC Synod Milwaukee June 21-25, 2019

I had the opportunity to attend the UCC Synod 2019, held in Milwaukee Wisconsin, as an Illinois Conference delegate. Meeting in committees and then in plenary session, delegates considered a total of 22 resolutions – here are three that stand out for me:

- 1) Observance of Break the Silence Sunday (BTSS), a “resolution of witness” supporting the survivors of rape and sexual violence through on-going church-wide observance of BTSS (suggested date 4th Sunday in April, which is national sexual assault awareness month). The BTSS resolution, which passed unanimously in the plenary, was sponsored by many local UCC congregations across the country, including Trinity UCC of Manchester! The resolution, in addition to committing to observe BTSS, calls us, as a church, to speak out in support of survivors of rape and sexual violence, offer care to individuals, including silent supportive witness in courtrooms, and advocate on behalf of survivors of rape and sexual violence, so that the voices of survivors do not speak alone. I was so proud to be an associate member of a local church that signed onto this resolution!
- 2) A Resolution of Witness “Stewardship of Exhibit Space as a Resource for the Mission of Justice,” which, following long debate and then in many small group conversations into the wee hours of the morning, was ultimately tabled by the plenary and not brought to a vote, was introduced by the Michigan Conference and called for the exclusion of the “Faithful and Welcoming Churches” (FWC) from the UCC Exhibit Space. FWC is a gathering of conservative UCC churches that do not agree with such UCC national positions as supporting same-gender marriage equality and the full inclusion of GLBTQI peoples in the life of our churches, including ordination, but nevertheless have decided that they want to remain within the UCC. This resolution to ban FWC from the exhibit space was not supported by the Open & Affirming Coalition (ONA), which opposes exclusion of anyone from our churches, regardless of where they are on life’s journey. Instead ONA follows a “graceful engagement¹” of churches and church members, including the FWC, regardless of where they are on life’s journey, regardless of how difficult those conversations may be. Many of our GLBTQI youth rose to speak during the extended debate period to express their extreme pain over the presence of homophobic groups in our UCC gathering who viewed GLBTQI peoples as “sinners,” “less than,” and unworthy of God’s full Love, in the very church that they had been told is an “Open and Welcoming” church. The reality is that less than a third of UCC churches have adopted an ONA covenant. We, delegates, agonized as we saw there was no way to honor both the LGBTQI youth and their pain, and the position that the ONA has taken on “Graceful engagement.” Our vote to table the resolution until the next Synod was accompanied by a directive to the UCC executive leadership to draw up a “Covenant of Behavior” for participating in the UCC Exhibit hall, to be distributed and agreed to at the next Synod.
- 3) The “Nehemiah’s Life” Resolution, submitted by the Illinois Conference, my other UCC home, calls upon the Congress of the United States to conduct formal hearings to discover systemic and proximate causes of civilian violence in America, and to receive testimonies as to changes in American Society that may be undertaken to alleviate the affects of violence in the American people. This resolution was passed unanimously. This resolution, passed unanimously, was written in response to the personal tragedy of a UCC minister in the Chicago Metropolitan Association whose son, Nehemiah Williams, was killed in a Chicago suburban parking lot.
