Pastor Gerry's Column

Can you imagine? We end the decade of the "teen's" and enter the decade of the 20's. Does this mean, perhaps, that we're going up some? Maturing? Entering a period of more purposeful work and productivity? Not sure there's a relationship between the maturation process of young people and the changing of the decades, but let's hope.

The Advent and Christmas season we're just concluded seemed to have more energy than in the past. Our Christmas Eve service was beautiful as we enjoyed the music and scriptures, singing "Silent Night" while lighting candles. It was a Christmas Gift sort of night for us at Trinity UCC.

As you read this newsletter, I hope you will read the announcement of a new Bible study series on the miracles of Jesus. There is always more to the miracles than meet the eye, on a first reading. The miracles offer us the signs and symbols of Jesus' deep-faith messages of the miracle stories. Come and join us on Wednesday evenings starting January 15.

Our worship series beginning January 5 will draw our attention to how worship shapes and informs our faith. For many, worship is the one hour devoted to God in their lives. Our hope for this series is that that one-hour devoted to worship will be deepened and enriched.

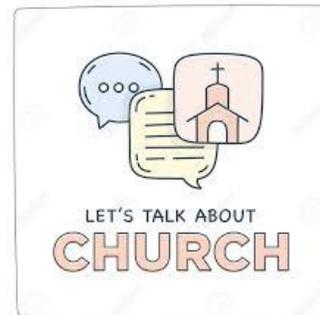

Let us begin 2020 with a continued sense of excitement and enthusiasm. Let us be engaged in the life of Trinity Church in ways that make us glad we part of this faith journey—a journey we take together.

Faithfully, Pastor Hanberry

WORSHIP IN JANUARY

Trinity United Church of Christ
Manchester, Maryland
Worship Schedule – 10:45 a.m

January 5 – February 2, 2020

LET'S TALK SERMON SERIES Nicholas Sparks, prolific fiction writer, says "I do not use profanity in my novels. My characters all go to church." For Sparks, if we "go to church," the language we use to talk about life and the church requires a certain degree of decorum and dignity. Even so, the language we use to talk about church is fraught with debate and conflict and disagreement. Still, in the 21st Century, church people can't/don't agree on the same language to use in its worship, in its reading the sacred texts from the Bible. The "inclusive language" wars continue even in the year, 2020. What difference does it make if one refers to "God" as "he" or "father" or "Abba" or "father/mother God" or other more gender-neutral words? While words are powerful and loaded with significant meaning for some who worship together on a Sunday morning, other folks are quite comfortable with more traditional language of the Church. In this five-sermon series, we will "unpack" and "explore" the varied meanings we give to the language to talk about church, and how we might come to terms with a shared/common understanding of the language we use in worship, in reading the Bible, being a disciple of Jesus Christ, and in how we approach the celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion. Come, even bring a friend, and join us at Trinity UCC for worship in these days of the New Year: 2020.

Miracles Or Metaphors: Does It Really Matter?

A Bible Study for Inquiring Minds

Five Wednesdays

6:45 – 8:00 p.m.

January 15 – February 19, 2020

One of the Famous Healing Miracles by Jesus: The Healing of Blind Bartimaeus:

They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart: get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again," Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and following him on the way (Mark 10: 46-52, NRSV)

What are reasonable people to make of a story like this?

Some people might say: “In the world as we know it, in the world we live in, no measure of religious faith can reverse retinal detachment or macular degeneration or whatever else we might imagine as the medical problem of blind Bartimaeus. That's just impossible.” And then others might say, “this story of Jesus healing Bartimaeus, who was blind, is just one of Jesus’ many healing miracles in the gospel. It says it in the Bible; therefore, this story is real and true. Might not be a ‘medical intervention,’ per se, but Mark reports the story and I believe it.

Others might suggest these healing stories in the gospels are really more metaphorical, much more spiritual metaphor than medical science or real physical healing.

With these varied explanations and beliefs, we might ask ourselves the ‘so what?’ question: Miracles or Metaphors? Does it Really Matter?

In a five-part Bible Study series starting Wednesday, January 15, we will explore this dilemma, this deep Biblical and theological question. Join us; bring a friend or neighbor.

Five Miracles of Jesus:

- Changing water into wine
- Healing Blind Bartimaeus
- Feeding the 5000
- Raising Lazarus

Bethzatha

Jan. 15 -- Changing Water into Wine at Cana

- John 2: 1-11
- First of Jesus’ ‘miraculous signs’ at Cana, Galilee
- Different miracle from the first ones in the other gospels

Jan. 22 -- Healing Blind Bartimaeus

- Mark 10:46-52 and Matthew 20:29-34 and Luke 18:35-4
- Jesus meets Bartimaeus on the roadside near Bethsaida
- Classic story of Jesus asking one to say what they want

Jan. 29 -- Feeding the 5000

- John 6:1-5; Matt 14:13-21, Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17

- Related to the “I AM the bread of life” statement of Jesus
- Significant because story is in all four gospels

Feb. 12 – Raising Lazarus from the Dead

- John 11:1-44
- In John, the last miracle before Jesus’ passion story
- Lazarus is the brother of Mary and Martha

Feb. 19 -- The Healing at the Pool of Bethesda

- John 5: 1-18
- Jesus heals man crippled for 38 years
- One of the ‘seven signs’ in John

Lexi’s Notes

As I sit down to write this, I am still wrapping up last minute preparations for Christmas Eve worship at Trinity, and have barely begun to think about my plans for Christmas Day. I hope that by the time you read this, we all will have had some time to rest, be with family, and enjoy the beauty of this special season without worrying.

Reflecting on the past year, I feel it has been one of tremendous personal and professional growth for me. Each day I feel closer to God, and I have discovered, over and over this year, the true meaning of the words, “with God all things are possible.” I hope that as we gather for worship and song and spiritual renewal each week in 2020, each of you can feel just a bit of this truly wonderful and amazing gift!

Cold Weather Shelter

Thank you for your donations for the cold weather shelter, each week for the past month we have dropped off one or two bags full of needed items, warm coats and fleece sweaters, sweatshirts, socks, underwear, t-shirts, and toiletries. The number of people seeking shelter overnight is increasing as the weather turns colder. The average number was 24-27 in the beginning of December, we expect that number may be near 40 when we serve a meal and help with check in on Thursday, January 30th. We will also be providing a meal on the last evening the shelter will be open, Tuesday, March 31st. Each week we receive an email sharing information from the Cold Weather Shelter. In a recent note, Clare Kazak, program coordinator shared two stories of the compassion of the guests reaching out to help each other.

One older gentleman, who has been staying at the shelter every night, finds it physically very challenging to set up his sleeping area. Each evening, someone else always steps up and takes it upon himself to do this, making sure the cot is setup and made up with sheets and blankets so that this particular man can get some rest.

On a recent evening, I overheard a conversation between two of our men. One older gentleman with a walker that was missing a wheel and another younger man who had just started a job. The newly employed individual was examining the walker. After he assessed the situation, he said that he would pay for the repairs that are needed as soon as he receives his first paycheck. Fortunately, a caring community member has already provided a replacement walker that will be given to this gentlemen this evening but the offer was certainly genuine and heartfelt.

Please let Karen Haines or Deb Miller know if you would like to join us on our service evenings when we have an opportunity to share compassion and make a difference.
