From the Pastor's Desk

Dear ones,

These last four months as your pastor have flown by and reminded me why I love ministry. It is a pleasure to do this work with a church of people of enthusiastic to live into the values Jesus taught. At the same time, I know there's a weariness setting in. Not a weariness in the work of ministry itself, necessarily, but a world-weariness. I don't know about you, but I feel like even after a good night of sleep, I still wake up exhausted. We're living through a time that feels chaotic and it's taking a toll. Still, as we head into the fall months and continue to make plans for the future of Trinity UCC, I am filled with a renewed sense of hope!

Hope is no easy sentiment at the best of times, but it is especially challenging when we think of all that's happening around us. A glance at the newspaper gives the impression that the world is in a state it's never been in before and that we are destined for ruin. Of course, that's not true, we have been in similar states before, but we might feel that there's nothing we can do to make things better. We might want to give into despair. Hopelessness is easier than hopefulness. With damaging storms, wildfires, violence, viruses, social discord, political divisiveness, economic woes, and sundry other issues, it's no wonder we all feel weary.

So, how can I feel any sense of hope in these chaotic times? The answer to that question is two-fold. First, as a Christian, minister, and mom of two little guys, I have a call to be filled with hope. After all, it was the Apostle Paul wrote, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the holy Spirit you may abound in hope" (Romans 15:13). There is joy and peace in believing because in that believing, we place our trust in the One who gives us life and breath and all things. We don't go it alone. In that, there is hope.

Second, I see signs of hope as I do my work at Trinity. Hope, because we are looking forward, not back, as a church family. Paul told the Corinthian church (who, by the way, we are discussing in our Bible study. Join us!), that no matter what is happening outwardly, "inwardly we are being renewed day by day." Exciting things are on the way, it's true, but exciting things are already happening in our midst. Those things have nothing to do with a new pastor. Those things are the result of your dedicated lay leadership who sacrificially give of themselves week after week to make Trinity the Body of Christ in the world.

My message this month is to remind you to keep the faith and hold onto hope. There are signs of hope all over our ministry together! Over the summer, we held vespers service, relaunched prayer shawl blessings, reignited our children's ministry, hosted a blood drive, served the community at the farmer's market, and celebrated Vacation Bible School. In September, we rallied, blessed backpacks, fed children in need, and opened a new bible study. As you read through our newsletter, you'll see much is happening in October, too.

There's no better time to come check out what Trinity UCC is doing in Manchester and beyond! If you haven't been to church in a while and are looking for a sign to return: here's your sign! Be an active part of sharing Christ's message of hope and love to a community and world starving for it. I will see you soon!

In peace,

Pastor Jessica

Cammeron's Notes

Christmas Time Is Here!!!!

Christmas will be here soon. I am in the Holiday Spirit. As I listen to Advent and Christmas music, I am so excited to present a Christmas Program to Trinity UCC. Throughout this pandemic, I have learned how to have JOY in distressing times. This pandemic has taught me to live with no regrets, ask questions without fear, embrace others fully, and to have joy. Christmas can bring joy or despair to many people. I have decided to enjoy Christmas with JOY. From this day forward, I will have unspeakable JOY. When things don't go my way, I will have JOY. When loved ones pass on, I will have JOY. When my body is wrapped with pain, I will have JOY. Why, you ask? My answer will be, "the JOY of the Lord is My Strength." It seems that JOY only appears during the Christmas season. But JOY can appear in any season in your life. Take hold of the unspeakable JOY; I know I will.

Be Bless
Cammeron

The Blessing of the Pets

Blessing Our Animals!

Sunday, October 10, we will celebrate the Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi with a Blessing of the Animals to take place from 2pm-3pm in the parking lot at Trinity. Bring your furry (and non-furry) loved ones to receive a special blessing!

*Though this is not limited to furry pets, please avoid bringing your aquatic friends as we do not wish to harm animals of any kind, especially our beloved fishies.*

Christian Education

Children's church is on the 1st and 3d Sunday of every month.

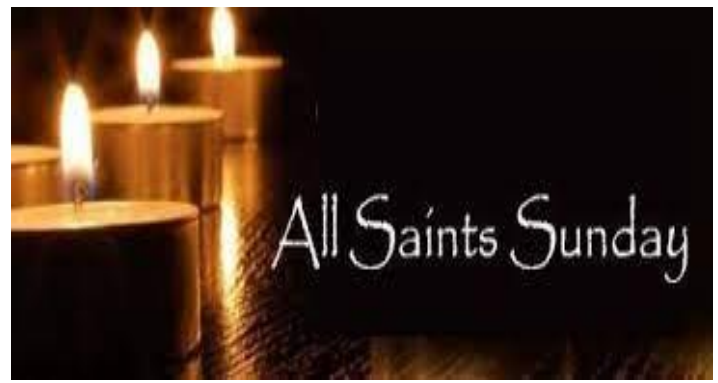

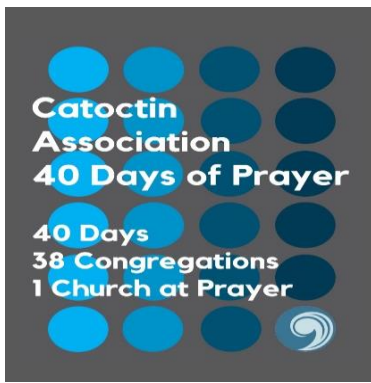

The children will have a separate time during the Sermon and rejoin the congregation for communion and closing prayers. We are running the race with Jesus and are exploring three verses from various sections of the Bible. Crafts, snacks, and prayers fill up our time also. The children talked about how perseverance helps us do hard things and how Jesus was able to keep going with his message. They have made batons and enjoyed creating relays with each other showing that the helping hands of Jesus can help us keep finishing difficult tasks. We will be talking about elements of the worship service too. Acolytes and bringing in the light is our first focus.

The Community Rock Garden to be launching on October 3, 2021. We will begin painting rocks for sharing and will be inviting the congregation to join in. Rocks can be added to our 2 designated gardens outside at the cross or carried by members of the congregation and the community to spread the good word of our faith. We want to make this a permanent mission of our youth. We will gladly accept any donations of Rocks (river rocks) and rock paints. We will have printed instructions and a rock for anyone that would like to join in on October 3d. and we pray it is a whole bunch of our members. Rock on Jesus!!

All members that help are practicing Covid precautions during Children's Church: Adults and youth all wear masks, sanitize their hands and areas, and keep a safe distance.

We welcome anyone who would like to assist and contribute time to our youth and the special times we are planning. Please contact Leslie Brooks or Amy Schultz via the new mailbox for the group and we will answer your questions, give you information, etc.

TrinityChristianEducation2727@gmail.com

"Pray for us...that God will open to us a door for the word, that we may declare the mystery of Christ..." Col. 4:3

Even Paul knew that the mystery of Christ, the Kingdom of God, was irrevocably tied to prayer.

The Catoclin Association is 38 churches - a wide diversity of geography, faith, and practice, and yet one body.

On Oct. 11, we will launch 40 Days of Prayer, praying publicly for each congregation, by name. We want to kneel in prayer as one association in prayer for each other through 40 days, to practice our covenant commitments to each other to love and support one another as siblings in Christ, to strengthen and encourage each other as a new chapter of faith emerges in our region. More information to come!

Calling All the Saints!

Sunday, November 7, is All Saints Sunday. In memory of those Saints in our lives who have gone on before us, we are calling for everyone to bring in a photo of a loved one so that we can remember them during worship. A special "All Saints" prayer will be said during worship with a time for lifting up the names of those pictured.
