Gathering

Feel the Spirit of the community. Worship is a time of both shared community and private conversation with God. Let us all come to this sacred space to enjoy both the loving fellowship of our common faith and the prayerful quiet that will allow us all to draw closer to God.

Why We Are Here

*Call to Community

MB Brainerd

One: Come, all who seek to follow Jesus. Enter this sacred space with open hearts. Tonight we remember the night of the Last Supper, when Christ washed the feet of friends and invited them to serve one another.

Many: We come with reverence and willingness to be changed. We come to love, to serve, and to be part of the community God calls us to be.

One: On this night, we remember that love is stronger than fear. Humility is the path to greatness, and service is the way of God’s kingdom. Let us lay aside pride and embrace the gift of one another.

Many: We will open our hearts to the presence of Christ. As we gather in remembrance, we commit ourselves to acts of compassion, justice, and mercy.

One: Come, let us celebrate the love that binds us, the grace that sustains us, and the Spirit that guides us. Let us worship God together.
